The Ultimate Solution

FOR CREATIVE ENTREPRENEURS

STORY TIME

Have you heard of situation where an amazingly talented creative spends 100's of hours trying to come up with their best painting, next hit song, or that next bestseller ?

how about that cool guy who spends all his life with his camera but have not seem to crack the code yet?

I mean they are doing what they love, they are advocating for passion yet they live their lives from hand to mouth, dreaming of that time to come when they can thrive, develop a loyal community and share their expertise with the world?

Does that story sounds familiar to you?

Entrepreneurs in the creative arts space face a myriad of challenges, especially in these key categories:

- Business Strategy
- Technological Infrastructure
- Marketing Resources
- Uninterrupted Creative Time

PROBLEMS FOR CREATIVES

Entrepreneurs in the creative arts space face a myriad of challenges, especially in these key categories:

- Business Strategy
- Technological Infrastructure
- Marketing Resources
- Uninterrupted Creative Time

We are proposing an application that addresses issues in the area of Technological infrastructure and Marketing .

SOLUTION

Mintymarket.io is an open marketplace where digital content creators can create, buy and sell their digital collectables(NFT). We will also provide a platform that gives exposure to creators by way of social networking for example, announcements and social links.

IMPACT

NFTs create a bridge between the crypto world and the physical world for everything from sports and music, to tv and film.

NFTs can solve very specific challenges or pain points like distribution, ownership, and compensation, with robust protocols and capabilities like royalties and access rights built in by design.

"Collecting is part of the human psyche," "With the advent of blockchain and the use of NFTs to create digital assets that are truly scarce, the inherent behavior of collecting things that we identify with can now happen."
